Re: U.S. v. Reynaldo Rivera
Docket No. 1:04-cr-10336-NMG

Dear Mr. Rivera:

I am writing to inform you that effective December 13, 2006 I will be suspended from practicing law in the courts. Additionally, I will be unable to perform any other type of representation outside of the court houses. This suspension will last until February 13, 2007 at which time I will be able to begin practicing law. I sincerely regret any inconvenience this may cause you as I understand that your legal issues are of the up most importance.

Accordingly, please be advised that you should promptly contact another lawyer and seek legal advice regarding the circumstances of your case and/or seek another attorney to represent you with respect to your legal matters as soon as practical. I can answer any questions that you may have up to December 12, 2006. After December 12, 2006, I can not under any circumstances speak with you about your case or any other legal concerns that you may have.

I will be in contact with you over the next week to discuss returning your file(s) and answering any other concerns that you may have with respect to court dates. I wish you the best of luck and I am very sorry that I have inconvenienced you. Please have a happy holiday season.

Sincerely,

Carl Donaldson
